or office, including but not limited to employees or those acting on behalf of government officials or government employees, any political party, any employee political party, any member of the government, or any candidate for a public position in order to induce or reward favorable actions of any matter related to this Contract. In addition, under the scope of the Tenth Principle of the "United Nations Global Compact" (companies should act against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery), The parties will not offer or accept any gift, loan, compensation or advantage, of any other person, in order to induce the occurrence of any dishonest, illegal or bad faith act, in the performance of the contract including the payments made to the employees of any of the parties. In case of non-compliance with the provisions of this clause by any of the parties.

The parties undertake to notify each other of any potential or actual violation of any of the laws of the National Anti-corruption System in Mexico in relation to the contract of which they become aware.

16. Prevention of money laundering, the parties undertake to adopt, within their corporate governance and during the term of this contract, the best international practices to identify, prevent and report operations with resources of illicit origin, prevent money laundering and observe the provisions indicated in the Federal Law for the Prevention and Identification of Operations with Resources of Illicit Origin.

17. Operations with resources of legal origin, the parties declare under oath that the resources used for the execution of this Contract are and will always be their own and of legal origin. The parties are obliged to prevent, detect, and report the acts, omissions or operations that could favor, assist or cooperate in the commission of the crimes of terrorism and money laundering. Consequently, the parties must provide each other with the necessary data and documents in terms of the Federal Law for the Prevention and Identification of Operations with Resources of Illicit Origin and the applicable recommendations of the International Financial Action Task Force for this purpose. The parties must implement all the necessary measures indicated by the Federal Law for the Prevention and Identification of Operations with Resources of Illicit Origin and the applicable recommendations of the International Financial Action Task Force regarding their suppliers and the application of policies for the identification and knowledge of the client. "Know Your Client". The parties accept that they may be subject to the provisions of the Federal Law for the Prevention and Identification of Operations with Resources of Illicit Origin, and/or other provisions regarding the prevention, detection and reporting of operations possibly linked to the crimes of Operations with Resources of Illicit Origin.

18. Non-subordination and operational autonomy.

a) The staff of MULTIVAC México, S.A. of C.V. ("MULTIVAC") is under the exclusive direction and control of MULTIVAC; It is not made available to the Client nor is it integrated into its workforce or production process.

b) MULTIVAC personnel do not receive instructions from the Client, except for necessary indications of industrial safety, hygiene, access and logistical coordination.

c) Visits to the Client's facilities are sporadic and for the time strictly necessary for installation, start-up, training, warranty, diagnosis or repair; They do not imply permanence, continuous periodicity or "resident" status.

d) Any requirement for continuous presence, shifts, guards, schedules set by the Client, or hierarchical supervision of the Client, is not part of the contracted service and will be rejected unless specifically agreed in writing and duly quoted.

e) MULTIVAC maintains at all times the status of employer of the assigned personnel and assumes the corresponding labor and social security obligations (including before STPS, IMSS and INFONAVIT), releasing the Client from any employer obligation with respect to said personnel.

19. The Client may not assign rights or obligations derived from these T&C without prior written authorization from MULTIVAC.

20. Clause for Transfer of Economic Adjustments. (Improvidence)

The Customer acknowledges that certain goods, spare parts and services are referenced to currencies; When the absolute variation between the current exchange rate and that of the base date is equal to or greater than 10%, the price will be adjusted proportionally, upward or downward, based on the effective net replacement cost of coverage contracted for the specific operation; the applicable currency (USD, EUR or other) will be indicated in the quote; costs derived from government measures or regulatory burdens will be transferred through a specific charge or credit, with documentary support and without an increase in margin; In the event of extraordinary events that, without preventing compliance, make it excessively onerous, MULTIVAC may adjust prices, terms or conditions to restore economic balance, prior written notification with calculations and references; The adjustments may be shown as a "Transfer of Adjustments" line or integrated into the price and will apply to orders in progress, pending deliveries and subsequent invoices, compensating advance payments.
